OSU HISTORY

John Smith is a name synonymous with wrestling success.

The Oklahoma State head coach won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, and he owns five national championships as head coach of the Cowboys.

In 1993, a new era began as John Smith became the seventh head coach in Oklahoma State school history. In just two years, coach Smith once again led the Cowboys to the title, claiming OSU's 30th NCAA championship. Adding national championships in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, Smith has led his alma mater to four of the last five NCAA crowns, and the Cowboys now have 34 NCAA team championships. That is more national titles than any other school has in any sport. During the remarkable history of OSU wrestling, unbeaten streaks of 70 (1921-32 under Gallagher), 73 (1996-2000 under Smith), 76 (1937-51 under Gallagher and Griffith) and 84 (1959-66 under Roderick) duals were reeled off by the Cowboys.

John Smith's teams have won five NCAA wrestling team titles, in 1994 and 2003 through 2006. His wrestlers have won 26 individual NCAA titles and 102 All-American honors. Smith has also captured 10 conference (Big Eight and Big 12) team titles and his wrestlers have won 82 conference crowns.

A native of Del City, Okla., Smith owns a 311-46-6 career dual match record as a head coach (.865 winning pct.).

JOURNEYMEN SUMMER CAMPS 2017

John Smith and Oklahoma State Wrestling

June 26-28 – Three-Day Training Camp

East Coast Location • Niskayuna High School • Niskayuna, NY

Close proximity to PA, NJ and New England and Centrally Located for NY

Oklahoma State's wrestling camp is committed to helping you become great! This camp will give you the opportunity to train the way you must train to become the best that you can be. Train side-by-side with John Smith, the greatest wrestler in American history. This camp is for the wrestler who is looking to improve on the best and easiest way to get a takedown, to score off bottom, and different ways to ride from the top position.

TWO CAMPS UNDER ONE ROOF:

OSU-NY Training Camp (high school) is technically a "commuter camp." There are no accommodations or food being served. However, we have already received commitments from programs across the state and neighboring states. That said, we have set up hotel accommodations to help those who want to make the journey in for this exclusive opportunity. This camp is designed to be the best of both worlds – learn and burn! Learn great techniques from perhaps the most technical program in the nation, OSU, and then prepare to scrap and scramble later in the day! Entire teams are also welcome at this very popular camp. You will get to compete and learn with the toughest wrestlers on the east coast. The camp emphasizes technique and live wrestling, but also finds time for some fun. If you are coming alone or with a team – no worries, we'll have a spot for you.

Youth Camp Option: (7th grade and younger)

Mike Krause, Youth Coach Extraordinaire – Don't miss this opportunity to train with the most widely recognized top youth coach in the USA. Experience Mike Krause's infectious personality and charismatic teaching style as he makes a visit to the Capital Region of New York State this summer.

This is a youth commuter camp built inside the OSU camp; however, we expect out-of-the-area competitors to make the trip. Camp is limited to only 40 wrestlers and will focus on developing fundamentally-sound skills. Wrestlers will learn to develop good wrestling habits and be pushed during live sessions. Parents are welcome to observe, or feel free to drop the kids off for the day and pick them up in the afternoon (exception being the last day – June 28). The last day of camp will combine the Oklahoma State group with Mike Krause's youth group! Don't be fooled by the Youth title! This is a high-end, elite youth camp, geared for the focused young athlete. Wrestlers should be prepared to work hard and be disciplined.
